

If you approve BPL, you will adversely impact a great asset to this country - Amateur Radio. It has been the birthing place for many of the pleasures we now enjoy at a cost of zero. We function when all other communications fail - witness our recent Field Day where we operate on emergency power through the length and breadth of these United States, and outside its borders. Be sure of what you sacrifice.